More White Pine cough syrup has been sold in Astoria this winter than any other kind, because it gives instant relief. The Owl and Eagle drug store are sole agents for all the best goods.

The Seaside Spruce Lumber Com-

The Standard Oil Company has a portion of its material on the ground for the erection of new oil tanks at the foot of Sixth street. The time will come some day when the people will regret that such menaces to the lives and property of the city were permitted to be erected.

The store of Foard & Stokes was crowded all day yesterday by the ladies of Astoria taking advantage of their great dry goods sale. The goods are all new and stylish, while the prices cannot be duplicated. It is requested that people call as early in the day as possible, so as to avoid the afternoon rush.

There is more building going on at Seaside this spring than in any previous season. Preparations are being made by the hospitable people to entertain the large crowd of visitors expected this summer. There will be ample hotel accommodation which, with a half dozen good restaurants will be sufficient for the wants of the public.

Fred A. Coles and Miss Francis Lawson were married Saturday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, corner of Sixth and Commercial street (instead of at the Baptist parsonage as erroneously stated. After the ceremony a reception was held participated in by a large number of friends of the happy couple.

John McDonnell of Mulan, Idaho, writes to the sheriff that in his opinion that official is trying to hold him up by assessing him $15.47 on a timber claim that only cost him $425. The sheriff has a purchaser for the claim at $1000. If McDonnell don't want to pay taxes, he had better sell his claim, but then, he won't do it.

Captain Ipsen of the barkentine T.
M. Emight, according to an evening paper, complains that he was unable to secure a tug off the Columbia bar for two weeks. There has been a tug out there every day this winter and if he had been anywhere in sight, he could have secured a tug. The tugs are just as anxious to tow him in as he is to be towed in.

Attorney Noland submitted a motion for a new trial in the case of the state of Oregon against John Hendrickson in the Uniontown saloon case.
The new trial is asked on account of alleged errors of law occurring during the trial and the failure to give certain instructions to the jury. A decision is expected today. This is preliminary to taking an appeal to the supreme court.

P. Lawler was in Seaside Sunday making arrangements for the building of a new store on the corner of Main and Bridge streets. The building will be 66x75 feet, two stories high and will be occupied by F. Dresser & Co. as a general merchandise store. Fred Moore, Mr. Lawler's partner, is expected from California this week. Work on the new building will be commenced at once.

Bids were opened yesterday afternoon in Portland for building an extension to the O. R. & N. Co. wharf.
It will consist of extending the present wharf out 118 feet to the harbor line as established by the United States government. A portion of the wharf, will be covered and a portion of the center will be left open. Three slips will be built. It is estimated that the cost will be about $14,000. Work on the construction will be commenced immediately.

Considerable complaint is made by tax payers in outside districts on account of the increase in their taxes this year and they are inclined to blame Assessor Cornelius. The assessed valuation is about the same as last year, but many of the districts have increased their assessment for road and school purposes, amounting in some precincts to 20 mills. At Seaside there is a 5-mill town tax, 12-mill school tax and 10-mill road tax, or an increase of 13 mills over last year. This is the reason why taxes are higher, and no one is to blame but the people residing in the precincts that levied the additional tax.

The largest house ever at the Star since its inauguration was present last evening, and standing room was not only at a premium, but Manager Gervurtz was compelled to lock the doors.
Fanny Donovan, the premier para-dist, captivated the audience and at once became a popular favorite. Rose and Severn are without doubt the most provoking mirth-makers ever in the city and kept the audience convulsed with laughter and were repeatedly called out. The DeLacy's in their coor-turn was the best exhibition of the kind ever seen in Astoria. The bill at the Star this week is without doubt the best ever seen and this popular play house will no doubt be crowded every night. Don't miss this show.

The Methodist church was crowded to overflowing Sunday night at the union service. Miss Oliphant preached a very interesting and instructive sermon and the sweet songs were enjoyed by all present. In this connection it might be suggested that it is rubable in all civilized communities where ladies are standing for the gentlemen to offer them a seat. This was overlooked by the gentlemen, probably for the reason that they so seldom attend church they are not accustomed to observing these rules.

Wm. Bock has had plans prepared for a new three-story building which he will erect this spring on his property on Commercial street adjoining Foard & Stokes. The building will extend from Commercial to Duane street. The front room on Commercial street will be occupied by Mr. Bock as refreshment parlors, and on Duane street by stores. A portion of the second floor will be fitted up into offices and the third floor will be for roomers.
Work on the new building will be commenced about the first of next month and completed within 90 days.
